Notes

Justified in Jesus

The Apostle Paul didn’t believe that human beings are basically good people who do bad things.

The opening of Romans proves, with the exception of Jesus Christ, every person is unrighteous, guilty, and worthy of death. “All, both Jews and Greeks, are under sin” (Rom. 3:9).

Our problem as sinners is traced all the way back to Adam, the first man. Our only hope as sinners is found in the second Adam, Jesus. In Romans 5:12-21, Paul tells us how the work of each; Adam and Jesus, affects us today.

- ♦ Adam’s “one trespass” brought judgment and condemnation for all men (v16).
- ♦ Jesus’ one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men (v18).

When a sinner is united with Jesus through sharing in the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus, he passes from condemnation to justification. His sins are imputed to Jesus and Jesus’ righteousness is imputed to him.

From that point on, God does not give us our due, because He has given us Christ’s due.

On the day of judgment, the impenitent sinner will be able to blame no one other than himself.

On that same day, the redeemed will be able to boast in no one other than Jesus the Christ, and will ascribe to Him all praise and honor and glory.

May our lives point others to the God who rich in mercy and abundant in love, makes dead sinners alive in Christ (Eph. 2:4-7).

God is good,

Shawn
