Remember the Lord

*You will forget the Lord your God.
—Deuteronomy 8:14*

God pummeled Pharaoh with plagues until he released the Israelite slaves.

That was just the beginning of God's blessings for Israel. He orchestrated their Red Sea escape, protected them from fierce enemies, provided water and food, and clothes that didn't wear out.

And he promised to give them a homeland draped in travel-poster beauty.

But he knew that once they settled in and became prosperous they would forget the source of their blessings: "When you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down . . . then your heart will become proud and you will forget the Lord" (Dt 8:12-14).

And sure enough, they did.

That has danger written all over it for people who live where we live and have what we have.

Failure to be grateful for the gift is an insult to the Giver.
