WOODLAND OAKS CHURCH of CHRIST

February 2, 2014 — Volume XXII—Issue 5

I Didn't Know About God's Righteousness

I am studying with a lady who came to America from another country. She has lived here for several years, has been regularly attending a church and has conscientiously studied her bible during that time.

I gave her CDs of a series of lessons I preached some time ago entitled "The True Gospel" and asked her to listen to them. Later, I asked her if she had, and she softly replied, "Yes, but there is something that bothers me." I asked her what it was. She said, "I didn't know about God's righteousness."

I'm not surprised. But it was a little startling for someone to come out and say it so plainly. The truth is- not many people do know about God's righteousness. That's why a self-indulgent society so vehemently accuses Christians of being "judgmental." They don't know that God is righteous. That's why so many churches are filled with people who have never been converted. They don't know that God is righteous.

That's why the wages of sin is death (eternal separation from God in punishment)! Because God is righteous. God cannot co-exist with sin. There will not be one single sin in heaven. Why would one sin keep me from going to heaven? Because every sin that has ever been and will ever be committed will be punished with death. Someone is going to die for your sin.

If we don't know that God is righteous, we can't know how terrible sin is. We can't possibly understand why the consequences are so severe. If we don't know that God is righteous, we'll never truly be sorry for our sin and be motivated to repent. We will never be able to understand the reason that the cross was absolutely necessary for my salvation.

That's why the gospel is such incredibly wonderful news. Someone died in my place. He paid the penalty for my sin. I am healed by his stripes. He took my sins and gave me his righteousness.

We live in a world that doesn't know that God is righteous. That explains much.

- Ken Stegall

Ladies' Retreat – Save the Date!

March 28-29

Camp Cullen, Trinity, TX

Body Building: We're All in This Together

I Corinthians 12:12-26 * Romans 12:3-5 * Colossians 3:14-14

In our session on Building Empathy, we will be focusing on vs. 26 of I Cor. 12. If there has been a time in your life when you lived out the suffering of, "If one part suffers, every part suffers with it" and you are willing to share (about 5 minutes as a member of a panel of women) about how other members of the body effectively ministered to you during your time of grief/loss/pain (or could have done this better), please contact Lorie Addison: glennandlorie@comcast.net or 281-356-4152. If you would like to share, but would rather do it confidentially in letter form and have someone else read it, we could arrange that also. Our pains/tragedies are each unique. We do not have a preset list of what this has to include. If something comes to your mind and you would be willing to help with this, please let me know. (Also, you do not have to be going to the retreat in order to submit a letter for this.) Thank you!
