Happiness is a Choice

I could be happy if I was rich, couldn't you? Well... maybe I would need to be healthy too. Yeah, I could be happy if I was rich and healthy. And... good-looking. And maybe smart. I know I would be happy if I was rich and healthy and good-looking and smart! ... and young!

Truth is, there's not many of us who are all those things. In fact, there seems to be a lot of us who are none of those things. Do we have no hope for happiness?

Come to think of it, I know some pretty people who aren't very happy. And I know some rich folks who are miserable and some young folks who are depressed! And I don't think I know many smart people! :)

But the Bible says we can all be happy if we want to be. And I've noticed that just saying that makes some folks mad and unhappy. The very idea that they could be happy is an insult to their victim mentality!

Real happiness is a choice. It's based in gratitude. And you can't be grateful unless you think about your blessings (what you have). But most folks are too busy thinking about what they don't have to waste time thinking about what they do have! They can't be happy! Never will be. It's not possible.

The good news is- you can be happy without being rich... or beautiful... or young... or smart... or even healthy. I know that. But you can't be happy without being grateful.

So if you want to be happy, you can be. It's your choice. "But godliness with contentment is great gain." - I Timothy 6:6

- Ken Stegall
