TURNING NEITHER RIGHT NOR LEFT

I know that I frequently talk and write about the value of reading our Bibles regularly, but I'm convinced the benefits cannot be overstated. So here's another benefit—being impressed with the importance of strong, godly leadership from men who trust God.

Part of the impression is from a negative standpoint. I'm really saddened to read about how quickly God's people allowed their faith and obedience to Him to deteriorate when the leadership was weak. Think of what happened and how quickly it happened when Moses left Aaron in charge for only a few days while he went up Mt. Sinai to receive the 10 commandments (see Exodus 32). They were only slightly over three months from their deliverance from Egypt and the dry walk through the Red Sea! During that three month journey they had been eating quail and manna and they had drunk water from a rock in the desert! Numerous additional negative examples abound in Israel's history.

But I'm equally impressed and encouraged to see how leadership from men of strong faith can influence others to obedience which leads to God's approval and blessing. Men like Moses . . . Joshua . . . King Josiah and others who led God's people out of dark days of idolatry and decay. The Lord said of Josiah, "He did what was right . . . not turning aside to the right or to the left."

It appears to me that lots of folks today are either on "the right or the left!" We need men of faith and courage who will stand on God's word and lead without turning aside to the right or to the left.

Today is the deadline for your nominations of men you believe will serve the Lord's family as shepherds and servants. Choose prayerfully and spiritually.

-Ken Stegall
