

Calendar January 2018 – April 2018

Happy New Year! There are many great activities planned for the next four months. I understand that life is hectic, but I want to encourage everyone to make the most of each and every opportunity to serve others, to grow closer to God, and to get to know one another better. Please familiarize yourself with the calendar, and hang it up in a high traffic area in your home so it will be visible.

I am confident that God will do incredible things through all of us if we will seek him first in our lives. It is an exciting time in the youth group, and I look forward to growing in the knowledge and grace of God along with all of you. May you be blessed in 2018.

Love you all,

Chris Tomberlin
