What Condition Is Your Bible In?

By Travis L. Quertermous

My hobby is collecting comic books. Four factors combine to make a comic book valuable: (1) age; (2) rarity; (3) demand; (4) condition. In other words, the older it is, the rarer it is, and the more in demand it is, the more valuable the comic book will be to collectors. But the most important factor is the condition the comic book is in. Collectors grade comics on a scale of .5 to 10; .5 being in poor condition and 10 being in gem mint condition. Needless to say, truly mint condition comic books of any age are rare treasures indeed.

But when it comes to our Bibles, exactly the opposite is true. You may have heard it said, "A Bible that is falling apart belongs to someone whose life is not." If our Bibles are in mint condition, that means they are not being studied. It means it is not being carried to church and Sunday School. It means it is not being opened to study with others. It means we view the Bible as something of a collector's item, to be put up on a shelf and just be looked at, but never read.

That is not what God gave us the Bible for. The prophet Hosea lamented, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge ..." (Hosea 4:8). The Berean Jews were praised because "they received the word with all readiness, and searching the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so" (Acts 17:11). So what kind of condition is your Bible in?

Thank you

A huge thank you to all of the great WOCC members who were so openly supportive of John & Daniel when they gave their lessons earlier in July. What a boost to anyone's confidence but especially for a young person - I think everyone's enthusiastic and positive feedback was appreciated more than you will ever know. Also wanted to thank Ken & Chris for teaching the young men's class last quarter on how to teach a lesson & song leading - what a valuable way to invest in our future church leaders!

Perhaps what makes us happiest & says the most about our WOCC family is what John said before he gave his lesson. Someone asked him if he was ready & he replied that he was ready because he could do horribly on his presentation & as he put it "these people will still love me!" What a blessing this church family is & I pray that all of us can be supportive of others enough to give them that confidence of unconditional love as brothers & sisters in Christ!!

Terence & Pam O'Connor

Words cannot express how thankful I am to be a part of this church family. The outpouring of love, cards, gifts, visits, food, and flowers during my recovery have been so encouraging. Thanks most of all for you prayers. Thank you for your love and encouragement as I continue to recover.

In Christian Love, Denise Tolbert
