GROW YOUR FAITH

The greatest treasure you will ever have in your life is something that the world ridicules. It is something that unlocks treasure of supernatural power. It appears weak and foolish to worldly-wise people. It is your only avenue for salvation. The Bible says that it is more powerful than anything else in the world.

By now you know what it is, right? Faith.

It provides what nothing else in the world can . . . but what so many things claim and fail to deliver. If you will be serious about growing your faith—by feeding it (Romans 10:17—studying the Bible), nurturing it (addressing your doubts and fears) and living it . . .

IT WILL PROVIDE YOU HOPE

Hope is the only motivation that doesn't vanish when times are difficult. It's because the hope that faith provides is based in eternity rather than temporal things.

IT WILL PROVIDE YOU SECURITY

Whether you realize it or not, we crave security. That's what we're looking for in accumulating money, in education, and—believe it or not—in marriage. We want the security of knowing that there is someone who loves us more than anything or anyone in this world. My faith assures me of God's love.

IT WILL PROVIDE YOU SALVATION

God's gift of righteousness is received through faith—both for initial salvation and for continued salvation. Paul said that the righteousness that is available from God is "from faith unto faith." It's all about faith.

If you desire HOPE, SECURITY, and SALVATION, do the things that will grow your faith.

-Ken Stegall
