PERFUME AND FRENCH FRIES

How many of us will admit to being old enough to remember Art Linkletter's TV program "Kids Say the Darndest Things"? Can you remember laughing so hard you cried?

More recently there was a survey done asking children about love. They were asked "Why does love happen between certain people?" Mary (9 years old) said, "No one is really sure why it happens, but I heard it has something to do with how you smell, and that's why perfume and deodorant are so popular." Manuel (8) said, "I think you're supposed to get shot with an arrow or something, but the rest of it is not so painful."

Then they were asked "How important are your looks when it comes to falling in love?" Brian (7) had it figured out- "It isn't always just how you look. Look at me. I'm handsome like anything and I haven't gotten anybody to marry me yet." Then they were asked to make suggestions about surefire ways to get someone to fall in love with you. Bart (9) said, "One way to do it, to make a person fall in love, is to take her out to eat and make sure it's something she likes to eat. French fries always work for me." And Camille (9) said, "Shake your hips and hope for the best."

I suppose all of us received loads of advice when folks found out we were engaged to be married. And most of it was worth just about what it cost us - nothing! But the one who created us and who designed the concept of marriage and family can be trusted to know what he's talking about. He says that the foundation for a happy marriage and home is for everyone to learn to submit. We submit in different ways, but our submission is focused on HIM - the Lord.

Interestingly, that is exactly the opposite of the advice you get from the world. But if you are wise enough to trust what God tells vou rather than following the world's advice, then your marriage and home will be a source of security, peace and happiness your entire life.

Frankly, the advice you get from the world is not much more helpful than what the children said. Our current series of Sunday morning sermons has been focusing on God's instructions for a happy home. Bring your Bible and join us.

Thank you

Dear Church Friends,

We thank you all for your prayers, calls, and offers to help us in recent months during Pat's accidents and illnesses!

Everyone of you are appreciated.

Pat & John Charleston

Words can not express how much I appreciate all the cards, prayers, phone calls, plants and delicious meals you provided during my recent hospital stay and recuperation at home. It was your love that gave me strength and helped me to have a complete recovery. A special thank you to Karen Ardito who did an awesome job handling all the office tasks that usually takes two. Also, thank you Cindi Aloway, Sara Blake, Lana Chauvin, Lisa Holland, and Tanya Williams for coming in and subbing to help Karen. This church family always steps up to help someone in need. A church family like you is a special hug from God. I am truly blessed to be a part of this church family.

Love, Gina Talbott
