The Charles Schulz Philosophy

The following is the philosophy of Charles Schulz, the creator of the 'Peanuts' comic strip. You don't have to actually answer the questions—just ponder them. Read straight through and you'll get the point.

- Name the five wealthiest people in the world.
- Name the last five Heisman trophy winners.
- Name the last five winners of the Miss America pageant.
- Name ten people who have won the Nobel or Pulitzer Prize.
- Name the last half dozen Academy Award winners for best actor and actress.
- Name the last decade's worth of World Series winners.

How did you do? The point is none of us remember the headliners of yesterday. These are no second-rate achievers. They are the best in their fields. But the applause dies . . . awards tarnish . . . achievements are forgotten . . . accolades and certificates are buried with their owners.

Here's another quiz. See how you do on this one.

- List a few teachers who aided your journey through school.
- Name three friends who have helped you through a difficult time.
- Name five people who have taught you something worthwhile.
- Think of a few people who have made you feel appreciated and special.
- Think of five people you enjoy spending time with.

Easier?

The lesson: The people who make a difference in your life are not the ones with the most credentials, the most money or the most awards. They simply are the ones who care the most.

Dear Family in Christ,

Thank you very much for the love you have shown over the past months for Bert and Ann Johnson as Bert battled cancer. You were a special encouragement to them as well as Alma and me. Also a special thanks to all who prepared food and fed everyone after the funeral.

You are special,

Tyrone & Alma Mynhier
