Woodland Oaks Brothers and Sisters,

As we all continue to deal with the COVID-19 virus, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with each one of you. We continue to meet regularly to pray, discuss and evaluate how best to navigate these unprecedented times. At this point, and until notified otherwise, we have decided to continue with online only worship services. Links, updated information and reminders can be found below.

  - From the church drive-through (porte-cochere) on Saturdays from 10AM-NOON

As you have seen in other correspondence, we had a sizeable audience that streamed our services last week. Even in challenging times, God is giving us new ways to reach the lost. Keep inviting those friends and neighbors to join us!
